

"MANTA ROSA," "TEARS OF FLOWERS,"
"LILLY OF THE VALLEY," "VIO-
LET de PAUNE"

Perfume and Toilet Water

Manta Rosa Face Powder . . . 50c
Tears of Flowers Face Powder . . 25c
Cream of Paris . . . . . 25c

Made in Paris—Come in and Sample.

McSwain Bros. PRESCRIPTION DRUGGISTS....

LOCAL and PERSONAL

Esq. Jim Turner, of Puryear, was here Monday.

Harrison Williams, of Springville, was here Monday.

E. T. Parris, of near Buchanan, was in the city Monday.

W. D. Shoffner, of New Boston, was in Paris Monday.

Lee Bowden, of Henry, was in the city Monday.

Clint Williams, of Elkhorn, was here Monday.

Will Haley, of near Buchanan, was in town Monday.

Hugh Hunter, of McKenzie, was a visitor in Paris Monday.

J. P. Williams, of Mouth Sandy, was here Monday.

C. R. Bostic, of Henry, was in Paris Monday.

George and John Walton, of Henry, were here Monday.

Will Trousdale, of Route 3, was in town Monday.

Jim Bushart, of Routon, was here Monday.

Chas. Hartsfield, of Whitlock, was in Paris Monday.

T. W. Muzzle, of Mansfield, was here Monday.

Bob Trousdale, of Route 3, was in the city Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Van Cleave are in Chicago.

Fred Lawson, of Puryear, was here Monday.

J. L. and Homer Wells, of Mount Vista, was here Monday.

John Ezell and wife, of Mansfield, were visitors in Paris this week.

John T. and Hugh Bomar, of Bomarsville, were in the city Monday.

Rev. R. L. Robey, pastor of the First Methodist Church, in Paducah, was here Friday to attend the meeting.

W. D. Looney, of the Palestine neighborhood, was here Monday.

R. E. King, of Buchanan, route 8, was a visitor here Monday.

Miss Gabriella Carter, of Routon, is the guest of Miss Hattie May Robinson.

J. W. Ratteree and family, of Buchanan, have moved to the Head residence on Dunlap St.

John Roseberry, of Haglersville, was a visitor in Paris Monday.

Miss Ethel Easley, of Paris, has returned from a visit to Mrs. Henry J. Thomas, at Broadview. —Stewart County Review.

Mrs. Ed Lewis, of Crawford's Lake, was a visitor in Paris this week.

Lurton Wickham was in Paris Monday the guest of Dr. G. L. Powers. —Stewart County Review.

W. B. Akers, of Big Sandy, was in the city Wednesday en route to Murray, Ky., where he will attend the Kentucky and Tennessee encampment of the W. O. W.

Will Dawson has returned to Amarilla, Texas.

Jas. N. Cooper has returned from Dawson Springs.

Gen. J. W. Lewis was in Puryear Friday.

H. L. Byars has returned from Cincinnati and Cleveland.

W. H. Carter and wife are visiting in Springfield.

McGehee's Variety Store does for you in prices every day in the year what others do only once or twice a year.

J. P. Lamb, who suffered a stroke of paralysis last Friday, is reported better.

Mrs. Frank Roberts, of Puryear, was a visitor at the home of Mrs. Jennie Kent this week.

J. W. Cannan, of Buchanan, was in the city Sunday and Monday.

McGehee's Variety Store is headquarters for the latest novelties the market can produce.

Rev. L. D. Hamilton and Dr. I. A. McSwain were in Jackson Wednesday on business.

J. Sam Culpepper, candidate for re-election to the office of tax assessor, was in town this week.

W. A. McSwain, candidate for tax assessor, was here Wednesday.

LOST.—Graduating pin, somewhere in Paris. Scarritt Bible and training school engraved on pin. On back wording, "Emma T" and a scriptural reference. Finder please return to Mrs. E. W. Sloan, Porter street.

Mrs. P. A. Aden and children have returned to Memphis.

Claude Bushurt, of Routon, was in town Monday.

A. B. Sturdivant, of Route 3, was in town Monday.

S. H. Ralls, of Route 5, was in town Monday.

B. G. Clary, of Cottage Grove, was in Paris Monday.

Will Cheneworth, of Elkhorn, was here Monday.

McGehee's Variety Store will occupy Booth No. 10 in the Merchants' Building at the County Fair. Call and see us.

T. V. Burton, of Elkhorn, was here Monday.

Miss Frances Swinney is the guest of friends in Huntingdon.

Dr. H. G. Brooks, of Elkhorn, was here Monday.

W. H. Bomar spent Sunday in Mansfield.

Bob Mooney, of Henry, was here Monday.

Austin Perry, of Route 5, was in the city Monday.

Miss Beulah Clendenin, of Springville, was here Monday.

Ase Collins, of Route 3, was here Monday.

J. F. Hudson, of Buchanan, was in the city Monday.

T. E. Bowles, of Elkhorn, was in Paris first of the week.

Will Roberts, of Route 3, was in town Monday.

Attorney R. J. Jones was in Trenton Saturday.

Ed Ray Ewing spent a few days with homefolks this week.

Chas. Herrin, of Big Sandy, was here Monday on business.

Mrs. J. Winsett, of Henry, was here shopping Monday.

Ed Works, of Whitlock, was here Monday.

Ladies, go to McGehee's Variety Store for hat shapes, feathers and flowers if you want an up-to-the-minute hat at price.

F. L. Manley, of Elkhorn, was here Monday.

J. M. Reynolds and wife, of Henry, spent Sunday in the city.

Young Lady! You'll be sorry if you buy shoes without seeing the new creations at Humphreys' Royal Blue Store. It

M. G. Crawford, of Puryear, and J. W. Cannon, of Buchanan, connected with the Gatlin line of stores, left this week for the eastern markets.

John Bomar, of Route 7, was here first of the week on business.

Miss Vera Dortch, of Springville, was a visitor in Paris Saturday.

Supt. Joe Routon attended the Educational Rally in Puryear Friday.

Mrs. J. G. Presson, of Camden, was in Paris Friday en route from a visit in Erin.

Alexander Johnsonius left Friday for Lebanon where he will enter school.

Dexter Harris was in Paris Wednesday on business. —Houseton County News.

Miss Thelma Cantrell, of Big Sandy, was the guest of friends here Friday.

Prof. M. M. Phillips attended the Educational Rally at Puryear Friday.

Mrs. Lyde Anderson, has returned to Mayfield, Ky., after a visit to Mrs. Nelle Wilson, on Wood street.

Mrs. Boyd Abbott, of Durant, Okla., was a recent guest of Mrs. John Lannom.

Misses Emma and Minnie Daniel spent the week end with Miss Rachel Stewart, in Puryear.

French Dry Cleaning, Pleating, Dyeing, Button making done by experts. —Humphreys' Royal Blue Store. 9-10-3t

Why not enroll your son or daughter for a course in Short-hand, Typewriting and Book-keeping in Grove High School class work, or for individual instruction in these branches afternoon or night at Gallion Flats. For terms apply to Mrs. L. M. Payne. Phone 448.

Fall Opening

Next Thursday, September Sixteenth, I will have on Display My Entire Stock of

Millinery

The Public is Cordially Invited

Store will not be open before 10:00 a. m.

Mrs. J. A. Orr.

Prof. W. T. Robinson attended the Educational Rally at Puryear Friday.

Dixie Theatre stock, 4 shares, for sale cheap. Apply at this office.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Goodin, of Henry, were visitors in Paris Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Hartsfield, of Whitlock, were in Paris Monday.

J. H. Spencer and wife, of Nashville, are guests of Miss Emma Smily.

Mrs. W. L. Dinwiddie has returned from a visit to relatives at McKenzie and Brownsville.

Miss Bernice Madole spent the week end at Big Sandy the guest of Mrs. Lillie Odum.

Mr. and Mrs. G. Porter Lee, of Nobles, attended the tent meeting here Sunday.

Four shares Dixie Theatre stock for sale cheap. Apply at this office.

Mrs. L. P. Olive and children have returned from an extended visit at Mount Pelia, Tenn.

C. T. Valentine, of Buchanan, was here Monday.

Miss Mary Mattie Bomar, of Whitlock, is the guest of Mrs. Hugh Anderson.

Mrs. Percy McCormack has returned to Paducah after a visit to relatives in the county.

Rev. L. D. Hamilton returned Monday from Hirksey and Hazel, Ky., where he conducted Quarterly meetings.

Mrs. Doak Harrison who has been the guest of Mrs. W. C. Humphreys has returned to Nashville.

T. A. Lovelace, a prominent merchant of Gleason, was here Monday on his way to Louisville, Ky.

J. W. Cannon, of Buchanan, was in the city Sunday and Monday.

Miss Lona Belle Fowler is visiting in McKenzie and Dresden this week.

According to our usual custom we will give all public school teachers a discount of 10 per cent on all purchases made for themselves during their actual services. —Humphreys' Royal Blue Store. 2t

The buyer for McGehee's Variety store spends one third of his time in finding and buying the right kind of goods at the right price, one third in arranging and advertising, the balance in serving the trade.

Miss Annie Clare McCoy left Tuesday for Henderson, Tenn., where she will enter Henderson Normal College.

Mrs. D. B. Thomas has returned to Nashville after a visit at the home of Mrs. R. A. Watkins.

Mrs. Evora Phillips, of Camden, was in Paris Monday en route to Jackson.

Mrs. Clinton Gregson, who has been the guest of her daughter, Mrs. Robt. McAdoo, has returned to Mansfield.

Miss Marina Phillips, has returned to Nashville after a visit to her brother, Jno. W. Phillips.

Mrs. C. E. Butler, who has been the guest of her sister, Miss Adelle Covington, has returned to her home in Mendenhall, Miss.

Mrs. Sallie Robins, of Nashville, who has been the guest of Mrs. T. V. Wyatt, has returned home.

Miss Mabel Moody left Wednesday for Decatur, Miss., where she will resume her music class.

FOR SALE.—Four shares Dixie Theatre stock for sale cheap. Call The Parisian.

Mr. and Mrs. Felix Rowlett and little son, have returned from Colorado Springs.

Ace Humphreys, of New Mexico, is here the guest of relatives.

Miss Elizabeth Brooks, of Elkhorn, left Monday for Martin where she will enter Hall-Moody Institute.

A most complete line of children's school shoes now on display, including the Celebrated Waukenphast broad toe extended sole. Come and see them, you won't be asked to buy. —Humphreys' Royal Blue Store. 1

For all kind of School Supplies such as rain coats and hats, umbrellas rubbers, gloves, shoes, underwear, pencils, tablets and erasers McGehee's Variety Store is headquarters, and the prices the lowest.

John W.

Phillips Co.

Our stock of FALL and WINTER Merchandise is now ready for your inspection. Never before was every department as full and complete as it is this time. We are in position to give you better merchandise for less money than you have bought for many years.

Our Ready-to-Wear Department

be full of the NEWEST and best things in Tailored Suits, Coats and Silk Dresses at PRICES YOU CAN AFFORD.

COME TO SEE US.

Paris

Tenn.

MRS. CLOVER'S Millinery Opening

September 16, 1915

You are cordially invited.

NEXT DOOR TO COMMERCIAL BANK.